Policies and Procedures for Certification

Any arrangement between a minority business concern and other parties which involves apparent minority "fronts", or other circumstances which would tend to circumvent the certification process by placing any substantial control of the minority business concern with a non-minority individuals(s) will be closely examined and will result in a denial or revocation of affiliate certification. In addition, reapplication for certification under such circumstances will be denied.

Submitting false information is a Class II felony punishable if the council chooses to press charges.

The undersigned hereby swears under penalty of law that all statements made in this application are true.

The undersigned agrees to hold the Rocky Mountain MSDC harmless for any claim arising out of this application and agrees to indemnify the Rocky Mountain MSDC for any liability in connection with the certification of the applicant.
